Just echoing what Dan said. We are obliged to refer all media inquiries for matters in litigation to DOJ. I don't know whether there is anyone assigned at DOJ for IPC-Hells Canyon, but in the Columbia case, MacIntyre was working with Wyn Hornbuckle.

(As a side note, the judge's order plus our joint motion provide the whole story in this case. There really isn't anything to comment on.)

We can just say that it's in litigation and we have no comment. DOJ would just do that as well.

Good Morning:

Associated Press in Boise is asking EPA for comment on the Idaho Power lawsuit re Snake River water temperature standards below Hells Canyon Dam, put on hold last week.

I expect our official response will be no comment.

Response deadline is noon today, running a story tomorrow.

Thanks,
